Maybe you think real people don't actually win cash and big prizes by entering sweepstakes, contests, or playing instant win games. This book will teach you the 4 basic things you need to get started winning today and how to protect yourself from scams. You will also learn the difference between a sweepstakes, contest and instant win game and where to find legitimate giveaways to enter. Will I get junk mail if I enter sweepstakes? You'll find out about this and also whether you have to pay taxes on prizes you won, why sweepstakes are sometimes void in certain states, and why you would want to enter sweepstakes by mail when there are so many to enter online.

About the AuthorWendy "Sweetie" Limaage has been entering and winning sweepstakes since the early 80s. Shenbsp;won a grand prize from the very first sweepstakes she entered that included a TV, stereo, wireless headphones and $50. Wendynbsp;has gone on to win many, many prizes and still wins an average of one prize a week. Some of her prizes include: two vehicles, a $25,000 trip to France, $10,000 trip to New Orleans to go alligator hunting with the "Swamp People" from the History Channel, TVs, bikes, more trips and cruises, cash to buy all of the furniture in my house, tablets (8 in one year), computers, smartphones, electronics, appliances and countless gift cards. Wendy uses her knowledge of sweepstakes to teach you how to be a winner on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest, and Snapchat.
